

FIRE DAMAGES COLUMBUS CITY HALL AT NIGHT

Loss Estimated in Excess Of $200,000 By Officials.

FIREMAN IS INJURED

Blaze Occurs Wednesday Night With Many In Building.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—Fire, which caused a loss estimated to exceed $200,000 destroyed the roof, third floor and parts of the second and first floors of the city hall last night. The fire is attributed to spontaneous combustion in the attic which had been used as a storage room.

One fireman was slightly hurt. When fire broke out over 100 persons were in the building. Some were playing basketball on the third floor. Others were attending a council meeting.

The damage to the building is believed to be less than $75,000, the greatest loss being due to water from the firemen's hose, damaging records. Responding to four alarms, sounded within 18 minutes, every piece of fire apparatus in Columbus was used in fighting the spectacular blaze.

Roofs of the Grand theater, just east of the city hall and of other adjoining structures caught fire, but these blazes were quickly extinguished.

BALLOONISTS ENROUTE TO TORONTO GIVEN BIG OVATIONS

Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton "Make Up" After Quarrel.

Washington, Jan. 13.—"There will be no court martial of Lieut. Farrell or Lieut. Hinton because of their personal encounter following their return to civilization after being lost in the snow swept wilds of Canada," Secretary of the Navy Daniels said this afternoon. A court of inquiry which will be ordered will probe the personal conduct of the officers and the secretary predicted that the inquiry would show so much bravery in the men that "any personal difference would be entirely overshadowed."

North Bay, Ont., Jan. 13.—The train carrying the three American balloonists who have made so much recent history—Lieutenants Farrell, Kloor and Hinton—passed through here early today en route to Toronto. The balloonists will stop over in Toronto a few hours only and will then leave for New York which they expect to reach tomorrow morning.

Lieuts. Hinton and Farrell were "pals" again today. They had "made up." Lieut. Farrell said that he had become convinced that Lieut. Hinton did not mean that the letter he sent his wife should be public and was willing to be friends again as he believed that Hinton did not mean all of the things he wrote. Both Hinton and Farrell blamed the nervous strain they were under, due to loss of sleep and fatigue for the outbreak at Matrice in which Farrell knocked Hinton across the room. Both today declared they wanted to forget the incident.

The three officers were given a cheering, though brief reception at Cochrane, Ont., last night when their train passed through that town. President Stevens of the board of trade made a speech in the railroad station congratulating the balloonists on their miraculous escape. A crowd of townspeople crowded around the officers, shaking their hands. Lieut. Farrell made a short speech, thanking the citizens for their cordial reception and for the many courtesies shown them since their balloon landed near Moose Factory. The train stopped at Cochrane only 20 minutes.

BREAK BETWEEN PRESIDENT WILSON AND DEMOCRATIC SENATORS WIDENS

White House Silent On Wilson Attitude Toward Tariff Bill.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Democratic Senators opposed to the emergency tariff bill are utterly "at sea" today as to the probable attitude of the president towards the measure.

Since they joined with Republican senators in overruling the president's veto of the resolution rescinding the war finance corporation, they have been cut off from communication with the White House.

Although they are banking upon the president to veto the pending tariff bill, if it passes the senate and upon their ability to prevent the president's veto being overridden, they admitted they were "in the dark" as to what the president will actually do if the measure reaches him.

A report that he may permit the bill to become a law automatically, if only as an expression of unconcern regarding the desires of Democratic senators who deserted him when he opposed the attempt to revive the war finance corporation, reached them today.

It increased their admitted perplexity over the unusual situation, the democratic leaders of the senate being completely out of touch with the wishes of a Democratic president. Efforts to communicate with the president through Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, have availed Democratic senators nothing, it is said.

Their worries have been increased by the known defection in their own ranks. They have discovered that from eight to eleven Democratic sen-

REQUEST WILSON TO APPEAL FOR AID

Washington, Jan. 13.—President Wilson would be asked to issue a public appeal for American contributions in behalf of the starving people of Europe by a resolution approved by the house foreign affairs committee.

The resolution is a substitute for one by Representative French, Republican Idaho, proposing that the government officially endorse the work of European relief council headed by Herbert Hoover.

It increased their admitted perplexity over the unusual situation, the democratic leaders of the senate being completely out of touch with the wishes of a Democratic president. Efforts to communicate with the president through Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, have availed Democratic senators nothing, it is said.

Their worries have been increased by the known defection in their own ranks. They have discovered that from eight to eleven Democratic sen-

WOULD LIMIT EXPENSES OF STATE FOR UPKEEP OF OFFICIAL'S HOME

States Share Limited To $15,000 Annually In Bill Now Up—Blow Is Aimed at Professional Bondsmen—Would Repeal School Bill.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—Maintenance of the governor's mansion, East Broad street, is provided for in a bill introduced in the house by Rep. Hamer, Toledo, limiting such expense on the part of the state to $25,000 a year with a minimum expenditure of $15,000 a year. Another section of the measure provides for a $9,000 appropriation to maintain the governor's home until July 1 next, the end of the fiscal year.

Rep. Morris, Hamilton county, introduced a bill providing penitentiary imprisonment of from 25 to 35 years for persons convicted of hold ups. The present law provides for a minimum sentence of three years.

A blow at professional bondsmen in large cities is contained in a bill introduced by Senator Day, Cleveland, seeking to centralize responsibility for bonds on a bail commissioner, or pre-appointed judge, empowered to fix the amount of bail. Forfeited bonds would be made a lien against the property of the bondsman and the lien would be closed after 30 days. The bail commissioner would keep records of all criminals brought into court and repeaters would be compelled to furnish heavier bond than first offenders.

Representative C. M. Miller, Coshocton county, consistent with election campaign promises, introduced a bill designed to repeal the law providing for county and district school superintendents.

Measures intended to curb speeding autoists were introduced by Reps.

Bond in each case was fixed at $300 by Police Judge E. Dawson Smith for appearance in police court on the charges Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Rountree furnished bond Wednesday afternoon and was released, and relatives Thursday were attempting to secure the release of Dickinson.

CONVICT RETURNS TO JAIL TO WIPE OUT PAST RECORD

Surrenders To Police When He Learns He Is To Be a Father.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—James McElvey went back to a cell in Joliet today because he wanted to "have everything clear," behind him, for his bride of two months and the child that is to come.

McElvey escaped from Joliet prison last May. He was serving a sentence of from one year to life for highway robbery. He had been twice paroled and each time sent back for violation of the parole laws.

Four weeks after his escape he met a girl and before long they were married. Eventually McElvey learned he was to be a father.

Then he went to the girl he had married and told her that he was a fugitive convict. They talked it over, prayed together and McElvey called up Detective Sergeant William Stapleton, the man who arrested him for robbery and told the officer to "come and get him."

"I'm proud of you," the girl wife said as the detective took her husband away. "You're just noble, that what you are. And I'll be waiting if they keep you in for 20 years."

Hence the filibuster they have planned against the bill, in the form of numerous amendments ranging from the voluminous codification bill to the immigration and soldiers bonus measures. They intend to delay final action on the bill as far as possible and to resort to every available parliamentary and dilatory device to prevent its passage.

Several of their leaders declared they were confident the president would veto the bill, and that it had no chance of becoming a law at this session, but even they admitted they were completely ignorant as to "what may be passing through the president's mind." They frankly confessed they are greatly worried over the ominous silence being maintained at the White House.

NAVAL STATION OF GREAT LAKES NOT TO BE ABANDONED

Daniels Asserts He Will Contest Any Such Suggestion.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The Great Lakes Naval station is not to be abandoned by June 30, and will never be abandoned if Secretary Daniels can prevent it, the secretary said today.

"The Great Lakes station is second to none in importance," the secretary said. "I don't understand where these rumors come from that the station is to be abandoned unless it is from talk of economy in the navy. If congress should attempt to abandon this station I would vigorously oppose it."

The Great Lakes station, the secretary said, is important as a training station, as it is in the center of the middle western states, where the navy draws its bulk of recruits.

Difficulties in securing coal for the station may have led to the rumor the secretary said.

Slaying Of U. S. Officer By Japanese Sentry Admitted Serious.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The United States will make formal protest to Japan concerning the shooting of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, U. S. N., by a Japanese sentry at Vladivostok, the state department announced today. The diplomatic question involved is whether the Japanese troops have the right to challenge an American citizen in Vladivostok. The protest will be made through the American diplomatic representative in Japan.

The latest reports from Japan indicate that the shooting was done by an excited sentry and was the act of an individual, state department officials said.

B. & O. TRAIN HITS AUTO; PASSENGER GETS BROKEN LEG

Jeffersonville People Escape Death When Car Is Hit at Dayton Hill.

Escaping death miraculously when the Ford coupe in which they were riding was reduced to a pile of junk by a B. & O. passenger train, Tuesday at 5 p. m., at the Dayton Hill intersection with the railroad, three residents of Jeffersonville, and environs are today recuperating from injuries, none of which are serious. The injured:

Miss Juanita Pace, 25, school teacher at Jeffersonville high school, right leg broken between knee and ankle, scratched about head.

Miss Louise Reid, 17, high school pupil of Jeffersonville, right hip bruised, both hands cut.

Kermit Knox, 17, Jamestown R. R. 2, lacerations of knee; face and hands scratched.

The accident happened when the machine, driven by Knox, returning from Dayton, ran onto the tracks of the railroad directly in the path of the west-bound passenger train No. 69, which leaves Xenia at 4:45. According to the story told by the occupants of the car, the train was not seen until too late to avoid the smash. They were running, they said at a slow rate of speed, and were struck by the locomotive just back of the center of the car.

The machine was carried down the track about twenty feet, and utterly demolished. Drs. A. C. and H. C. Mesenger removed Miss Pace to McClellan Hospital and after dressing the injuries of the other two sent them to their homes.

The train was in charge of conductor Pat Sweeney.

MAKE CABINET ANNOUNCEMENT IN SHORT TIME

Harding To Make Known Two Selections In Next Ten Days.

WORKS ON SPEECH

Expects To Complete Rough Draft of Address By February 1.

Marion, O., Jan. 13.—President elect Harding plans to complete the rough draft of his inaugural address the first of the week in February. It was announced today. He has given close study recently to the pronouncements made by each of the former presidents on taking office and has collected a mass of data bearing on the problems which will face his own administration.

It also became known today that he expects to announce the appointment and acceptance of at least two of the members of his cabinet within the next ten days. Representation for New England upon the cabinet, it is said, was a subject of discussion today between the president elect and Governor R. Livingston Beechman of Rhode Island.

WEEKS TO CONFER. Governor Beechman's visit took on added significance when it became known that Senator Weeks of Massachusetts is expected to confer with Senator Harding before the end of the week. Senator Weeks has been regarded as one of the men most prominently in mind for secretary of war or the navy.

Mrs. Ogden Reid of New York, who was closely connected with the work of the Republican national committee during the campaign and Governor Beechman breakfasted with Senator and Mrs. Harding this morning.

Senator Harding discussed financial conditions and the affairs of the railroads of the country with S. Davis Warfield of Baltimore, president of the Association of Railway Securities Owners.

Internal affairs of Porto Rico and its president were placed before the next president by Felix Gordoba Davila, Porto Rican commissioner at Washington who outlined industrial and labor conditions of the island in detailed.

Among other callers was E. G. McConoman of the Buffalo Commercial and Sidney B. Thompson and T. W. Fleming of Cleveland.

DISCREDIT REPORT THAT LENINE IS SERIOUSLY SICK

German Specialists Called To Attend Professor Kartov.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—The report that Nicolai Lenine is ill at Moscow is not confirmed and it was generally discredited in Berlin today.

Two German specialists who had been summoned from Berlin were being called to treat Professor Kartov, president of the supreme economic council of the soviet, who was desperately ill of heart trouble, it was learned today.

Professor Kartov died before the German physicians reached the Russian border and their summons was countermanded by wireless. Both turned back to Berlin. The arrangement of the trip of the German doctors to Moscow by way of Riga was made by Victor Kopp, emissary of the soviet government in Germany.

Kopp received word that Prof. Kartov in addition to the heart affection had contracted blood poisoning and was in desperate condition. The radiogram contained a long list of the sick man's symptoms in order to assist the German doctors in diagnosing the case.

The suggestion was advanced here that Kartov may have used a non de plume for Lenine, but this theory was scouted, Kopp who is acquainted with all the soviet officials said that Kartov is a real personage and is a prominent figure in the economic councils of Russia.

WANTS $10,000 FOR ALLEGED SLANDER OF HER CHARACTER

Suit for $10,000 damages has been brought by Mrs. Sarah Nye against Mrs. Sarah Christopher, alleging statements in injuring the plaintiff's name and reputation, the suit being filed in Common Pleas court Wednesday.

The petition states that the plaintiff is a practical nurse and housekeeper, is a widow and poor. It is charged that on January 7 the defendant in the action made assertions that the plaintiff "was a thief and had stolen a quilt" from her. The petition charges that at solicitation of the defendant Marshal Al Zeiner, of Jamestown, searched her suitcase while she was at the home of friends. Mr. and Mrs. George Weimer, thereby injuring the plaintiff in her good name, character and personal feelings. She asserts that she was humiliated in her feelings and in her good name and reputation and that such slanderous and false charges as were made by the defendant, will militate against the plaintiff and cause great and irreparable injury and damage. She asks for $10,000 and attorney fees. Attorneys W. A. Paxson and W. S. Paxson of Jamestown, represent the plaintiff in the damage suit.

Case Transferred.
By petition the case of C. T. Ewry against the Detroit, Toledo and Iron-ore Railroad company, asking for $29,539.75 damages as the result of an accident suffered some time ago, has been transferred from Common Pleas Court here to the United States District Court, Southern District of Ohio, Western Division.

The case of C. T. Ewry against the same defendants for Fred Ewry, a minor, who was also involved in the accident has also been petitioned for removal to the district court. On posting of satisfactory bonds, the removal of the suits was allowed. The removal was necessary as the defendant company was a corporation in the state of Delaware and not an Ohio corporation. The suit of C. T. Ewry, for his son, Ferd E. Ewry, asks for $25,439.65 damages.

MOTORAIDS

The perfect lubrication for gas engines should either be completely consumed in the cylinders or not at all. An authority on gas engines lubrication, after many experiments, found that the lubricant that was not consumed at all, retained its full lubricating value so long as it remained in the cylinder. On the other hand the lubricant that is only partially consumed leaves a carbon deposit, while the lubricant that is wholly consumed leaves the cylinder dry.

The built-in luncheon cabinet is one of the latest patents in motor conveniences. For man or woman who loves to have a place for everything the motor cabinet will prove a source of much pleasure. The cabinet is built in the front of the tonneau in the back of the front seat.

The design has sufficient space for three thermos bottles in the pockets formed in the lining of the inside of the doors and beyond that there is space for a hamper and other luncheon containers. Over the hind door are two compartments, for other essentials for the luncheon. One of the chief beauties of this arrangement is the convenience with which a luncheon may be served while the car is moving.

Fast driving is destructive to ordinary tires. Twenty five miles an hour and no faster will give the best results from the tire mileage. Drive slowly over rough roads and take turns cautiously and, also, increase tire inflation to two pounds above normal.

It is a well known fact that the faster a tire is driven the more heat it generates internally and while normal speed will not raise the temperature to the danger point, excessive speeding will dry out the friction gum between the piles of fabric naturally will cause a seepage, taking the life out of the tires. This excessive heat, drying out

IT'S GOOD FOR CHILDREN

It is a disagreeable job to put grease into the differential and gear box, but a simple device has been arranged to make it easy. A brass tube, twelve inches long and of such a diameter to fit easily into the plug hole of the cases to be filled, is obtained. A round stick of wood a yard long and a good sliding fit for the tube, is also procured.

Now filled the tube with grease and put one end in the plug hole. Insert the stick in the other end of tube and push until all the grease has been pushed into the gear box or differential.

PARIS WOMEN ADOPT SIMPLE HAIR STYLES

Paris, Jan. 12—Are the intricate coiffures, the pride and joy of the average woman, to disappear for good and for all?

Just at present Parisiennes are devoting themselves to simplicity when it comes to their hair, which they arrange in the style affected by men since the war, and known as the aviator's haircut.

The hair is brushed tightly back with a ring over each ear as the only tribute of femininity. The fashionists declare that this sort of style suits only brunettes, so a most likely development will be a tremendously increased number of brunettes.

FAIL TO FIND FLYERS BODIES

Although the hydroplane in which Carl Fisher, former Xenian, and George A. M. son, Dayton flyers, lost their lives when it plunged into the Mississippi river at Tiptonville, Tenn., Sunday has been raised from the waters, no trace of the bodies of the missing aviators was found.

The plane was raised after three days' labor on the part of searchers. Little information was learned from an examination of the fatal plane, that the flyers had gone down with it. It is thought the water washing against the ship for the last three days, may have washed the bodies down stream.

AIRPLANES HOP OFF FOR LONG TRIP

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Ten planes of the F-5-L type of the Pacific naval aerial fleet flying from San Diego to Panama left LaUnion, Salvador, yesterday, for the gulf of Nicoya, a delayed wireless message to the commandant of the twelfth naval district from the supply ship Kenawha today stated. The planes hopping off yesterday were Nos. 2, 3, 5, 9, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17 and 18. The planes had expected to remain at LaUnion until the 15th for rest and repairs and the early departure was taken here as an indication that the air fleet is accomplishing the long flight with a minimum of trouble.

A later message stated that the NC-5 and NC-6 and the F-5-L planes Nos. 4 and 7 arrived at LaUnion yesterday and were expected to leave for the gulf of Nicoya today.

Shortly the habit may be completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Several days ago Mrs. R. B. Wright was in the drug store telling of what her close friend, Mrs. R. J. Brown, of Morning Sun, near Hamilton, O., thinks of Drecto. She said:

"Mrs. Brown is very much delighted with what Drecto did for her and it seems this medicine has a wonderful power to build up weak, rundown systems. She often suffered from biliousness and dizzy spells, headaches and gas on the stomach after meals. Her nerve was weak and she did not get refreshment sleep but would awake feeling dull, tired and aching. She also suffered daily from constipation."

"It is really remarkable how Drecto has improved her condition. She now enjoys big meals without the slightest gas formation and her digestion seems perfect. Her kidneys have been greatly strengthened and her liver cleaned of bile so that she has no more dizziness or headaches. Her bowel action is regular and natural. She sleeps sound and rises fresh and full of vigor. Really she thinks Drecto a rare medicine full of merit."

Drecto has proven its powers in many instances to overcome bad cases of gas in the stomach, poor digestion, sluggish liver, weak kidneys, shattered nerves, impaired appetite and constipation. The action is usually very prompt and the effects lasting. All good druggists sell Drecto and it is highly recommended in Xenia at Sohn's Drug Store.

BEAUTY CHATS

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS. John R.—Physicians concede that olive oil is one of the most fattening foods. You should, of course, take the best grade that you can buy. You must remember, however, that it is not what you eat but what you digest makes you stout. I would advise you to go on with the olive oil, and to get at least one hour's extra sleep every night. If you are very nervous or over-worked you may be having difficulty in digesting your food.

Anxious—I think from your description that you are a little over-weight, in which case a general reduction will reduce the double chin. Meantime rub it with ice for a few minutes every day. The marks on the face are not uncommon as a result of child-birth. Think they will disappear themselves in time.

Allice E.—It is possible for you to get Violet Ray treatments, I think they will benefit your scalp. Meantime, I would advise you to rub the scalp, the night before you shampoo, with crude oil, heated as hot as you can stand it. Use sulphur soap when you shampoo, and sulphur ointment or olive oil on the scalp, every few days if possible, have some of the hair cut.

E. B. J.—There are various explanations for white spots on the nails; some say it is nervousness, some say it is due to bruises. They are not a disfigurement; if I were you I would not worry about them. Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for directions for making a flesh building cold cream and how to massage wrinkles.

Bob—Too much candy is bad for the complexion. No candy is absolutely necessary for one's health and well-being.

J. E. T.—Powderedorris root is the best thing I know of for a dry shampoo. Corn meal is also very good.

Sally T.—Any sort of leg exercises tend to reduce fat legs and to develop thin ones. Dancing is particularly good. You may be to fat all over in which case the legs and ankles would also be too stout.

Blue Eyed Blonde—If you are under weight or ill you will have sunken cheeks, and all the cold cream massaging in the world will not make them plump. You must build yourself up physically, then the cheeks will round out of themselves, since you are still young.

Peggy W.—You are in a trying position, since you have so many members of your family to please. But don't wear your hair in ear puffs, for this style is not good for the hair and never was really fashionable. Comb your hair softly back from the face, and make a simple knot in the back and I think probably you will please everybody.

Freckles—Artificial hair in any form is very bad to wear, because it tends to overload the head and to heat the scalp.

M. B. T.—Turkish baths are very healthful and they will also help you reduce if you spend a little extra time in the steam room.

RULING HANDED DOWN.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HARDING'S INAUGURATION TO BE CUT TO THE QUICK IN EXPENSE.

For a long time nothing has pleased the country so well as Senator Harding's edict to cut out all proposed extravagant expenses connected with his inauguration as President next 4th of March. He has even gone so far as to propose the elimination of the outdoor ceremony of taking the oath of office, and to take it in the Senate Chamber, which would involve no preparatory expense. To this proposal, the Inauguration Committee has agreed.

Instead of using the $50,000 which Congress already has appropriated for government expenses, such as the erection of the inaugural platform and amphitheater at the East front of the Capitol, the preparing of engraved invitations, the enlisting of additional police and similar incidentals, the total governmental expense is not expected to be more than $3,000.

Of course the taking of the oath of office outdoors, gives opportunity for many thousands of people to witness this ceremony, but it is at a great expense to the nation, and this, Senator Harding has decided can be eliminated this year, when it behooves the country to save every possible dollar.

Ordinarily it has been considered due to the public to give this spectacular outdoor ceremony, as a momentous event in the nation's life, but this year, the country having just been involved in such enormous war expenses, the President-elect sees fit to save to the nation all unnecessary expenses connected with his inauguration.

It can well be considered that the taking of this resolution by Senator Harding has been one of the greatest instances of self-negation, of self-denial, on his part, ever shown by man—for we are all in the same boat when it comes to the matter of self-pride. And where is the man who will say that it would not have been more gratifying to Mr. Harding to have this ceremony witnessed by the public.

It goes without saying—that is, it is understood—that Washington city is "mad as a wet hen" over this casting of cold water upon its once-in-four years season of hilarity—the spectacular part of the induction of a new President. What, says Washington, does an inauguration amount to, if no great crowd to witness the ceremony—no great parades—no tremendously great inauguration ball—no hotels crowded with guests—no fuss and feathers over the event?—"in dust and ashes we cover our head."

But the balance of the nation can stand the matter with serenity. In fact, Senator Harding has already received numerous dispatches congratulating him on the matter.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE MR. HARDING'S JOB OF PICKING A CABINET?

Mrs. Todgers was of the opinion that to get a real insight into human nature one had to keep a boarding house. Undoubtedly a great deal is to be said for the educational advantages of that ancient and respectable calling, but if Mrs. Todgers had ever happened to be President-elect of the United States she might have qualified her dictum.

Mr. Harding probably knows nothing about the troubles of a boarding house keeper, or of the jealousies that assail boarders in connection with the distribution of the tender parts of the chicken or in the matter of clean towels, but Mr. Harding, after a couple of months' experience as President-elect, undoubtedly could give Mrs. Todgers pointers on human weaknesses that would make that lady open her eyes. Mr. Harding's own eyes have been opened, if we may trust accounts that reach us, and Mr. Harding has had considerable dealings with his fellowmen, too, before now. But it happens this is the first time he ever was elected President or set himself to the task of forming a cabinet.

In that undertaking he has discovered enough to enable him to inform Mrs. Todgers, if she were present for an exchange of ideas, that the handing round of the more popular parts of a table fowl and the distribution of cabinet places are processes of very similar character, in that in neither case is it possible to satisfy everybody. Neither fowls nor cabinets have members enough.

It is hoped the experience Mr. Harding is going through will not cause him to form too hard an opinion of his fellowmen. He probably will reflect that he is seeing the worst side of them, and that in his subsequent relations with them their better natures will be in the ascendant.—Kansas City Star.

A COMPLETE EDITORIAL.

From the Chicago Evening Post.

Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, in the course of a speech in the senate, offered these somewhat illuminating reflections:

"In Chicago the other day I visited the international livestock exhibition. I do not remember ever seeing a more wonderful exhibition. I thought: 'Is there a square mile in the world where so much business is done as on that one square mile in Chicago on which the packing industry is located?'"

"Here is a business that has grown not only in volume, but in perfection of handling and distributing, and now we want to turn it over to be managed by a commission created by congress. 'Not a member of that commission could manage successfully any one department of that industry. The commissioners are not going to make investigations personally. Who will? Somebody that has passed a civil service examination; more than likely persons who never conducted business to any extent in all their lives. Who is to issue the orders and regulations? Men who know nothing about the business.'"

"If the time has come to license business in the United States, treat them all alike. If the time has come when business must be run in the United States by a lot of $1,500 and $1,600 clerks, directed by a commission here in Washington, let it apply to all business."

With The Women of Today

Only one woman is entitled to wear the world war medal of the New York police department. She is Mrs. Rose Taylor, attached to the station house in the White Light district. Mrs. Taylor did war work in France for twenty-two months with the Post-Graduate Base Hospital Unit.

Eligibility to wear the war medal is only one of Mrs. Taylor's distinctions. She is said to know more secrets about the night life along the great white way than any other woman in the world. Life as she has seen it for the past ten years is not all bright and cheerful. Scarcely a night goes by when she is not called upon to play the big sister to some erring woman who is brought in from somewhere along Broadway.

The millionaire woman and the ragged girl look alike to Mrs. Taylor, and if they tell their real names no living soul is the wiser.

Sobering these weak sisters in the early morning hours and sending them home in taxis if they can get back is such strenuous work that Mrs. Taylor welcomed a layoff from the regular job to give her time to win that war medal in France. Wherever she goes it is manifest destiny that she will be in the thick of events.

The steamship Saratoga, on which she sailed to France, was rammed in New York harbor and all the passengers had to take to the lifeboats a couple of hours after they left the dock. Near the other side they were in a two day's battle with submarines. Eventually Mrs. Taylor got to Savanar, and the things she did there would fill a book.

Before she became a policewoman Mrs. Taylor was a nurse in charge of Cornell Dispensary in New York.

Mrs. Taylor did not know what was the program when she was called to receive her medal. She was ushered into a room where there were 650 men of General Lafayette Police Post No. 460 of the American Legion. Presently another woman came in.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The burglar alarm and self-igniting burners on exhibition at the Atlas hotel, was shown to a Gazette man yesterday and are inventions of interest and value. The raising of a window or the opening of a door when the alarm is set starts a bell to ringing and lights the gas and in addition there are many little details which the gentlemen who have it in charge will take pleasure in showing you at any time.

An important meeting of the School Board was held last night at which action was taken with reference to the new school buildings which are being asked for by the residents of Orient Hill. The object of the meeting was stated by the president of the board to be that of considering the advisability of building a new school building in the west end and on Orient Hill. Mr. C. H. Kyle presented a petition signed by 530 citizens asking for a building in the west end. Another petition was presented asking that a new school house be erected on Orient Hill. It is now up to the voters as to what shall be done with regard to the matter.

Owing to delay at the Dayton end of the line in arranging a few minor details, the consolidation which was to have been effected between the traction lines will not go into force this week. And just when the consolidation will go into effect is something that cannot be determined. Just now the Rapid Transit line seems to be getting it's line in good shape, having a force of twelve or fifteen men along the track, graveling and so forth, and altogether the question of consolidation seems to be as far off as ever.

Yesterday evening George Little appeared before the Probate Judge and asked that an injunction be granted, preventing the Citizens Telephone Company from proceeding with the system in this city. A temporary restraining order was issued but at present the men are still at work and the announcement is made that no attention will be paid to the order of the Probate Court, the claims being made that it has no jurisdiction in the matter. Just what the next step in the proceedings will be remains to be seen.

the Countess Cunliffe-Owen, who presented a war medal to each of them. The countess kissed the policeman as she pinned the bronze Maltese cross on her lapel.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT

Philadelphia women advise a court of domestic relations for every city in the United States. The Philadelphia court has been surprisingly successful. In 1919, 21,449 couples were married and out of that number 1,311 separated. Each year in the six since the court was established the number of separations has decreased.

PLAIN MEAL COSTS $100 IS COMPLAINT

Paris, January 13.—Following complaints that a party of Chicagoans had been terrorized into paying $100 for a plain meal in Pere Tranquille, a famous restaurant, the Paris police raided the place.

Sixty persons were arrested, including 18 Americans, all of whom were permitted to go, after producing papers to identify themselves.

They were warned, however to keep away from clandestine resorts in the future.

REDUCE AMERICAN FORCE IN GERMANY

Washington, Jan. 13.—Reduction of the American forces of occupation in Germany from 15,000 to 8,000 has been ordered by the war department.

Secretary Baker wrote to Representative Byrnes, Democrat, South Carolina, that the reduction already is under way. He added that the ultimate withdrawal of the entire force was a matter "for future consideration."

The cost of operating the force of 15,000 was approximately $75,000 a day, Mr. Baker said, but under the terms of the armistice, Germany must pay the maintenance costs.

PROFITEERING QUIZ BEGUN.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Initial steps in the investigation of charges of profiteering in the sale of coal to the War Department last summer, as contained in a report of the Senate Committee on Reconstruction, were taken by the Department of Justice. Investigators of the department were assembled, officials said, and the preliminary work begun.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

A TRUE STORY.

There was a man who owned some flats, out in a western town, fit dwellings for aristocrats, all painted white and brown; and renters took their kids and cats to them and settled down. In time the greedy rent hogs rose, on get-rich courses bent; the hearts of many landlords froze, they grasped at every cent; and people soaked their furbelows, to pay the monthly rent. And landlords got an evil name throughout that plundered grad; they played a profiteering game that made the victims mad; said victims said it was a shame, as they dug up the scad. While other landlords raised the price, the hero of this tale said old time prices would suffice, old contracts should prevail; he would not ask an extra slice of hard-pressed tenants' kale. These tenants, being safe and sane, to gratitude not dead, when rent day came did not complain, or fear the landlord's tread; but they gave him a handsome cane, that had a golden head. Oh, all the tenants stood in line, and then, with seemly mirth, they sprung their tribute, high and fine, to one of sterling worth; and he was moved to shedding brine that trickled to the earth. He gets more pleasure from this gift than do the pirates gay, the profiteers who strive to lift the prices every day, from all the coin their evil thrift has won and filed away.

FOUR APPLICANTS TAKE EXAMINATION FOR POST OFFICE JOB

Four applicants for the position of postmaster at Jamestown, took the civil service examination now necessary at the Federal building here Wednesday.

The four applicants who took the examination were Lawson S. O'Day, incumbent, under a temporary appointment, Francis Clark, John O. Ross and David Venard. The examination was in charge of the local civil service commission, of the Xenia office, consisting of Miss Cora Williams, George Hamilton and B. F. Eckerle.

The papers as prepared by the candidates will be sent to the United States Civil Service commission by the local commission immediately, for grading and the grades will then be certified to the Postal Department for appointment.

A permanent appointment should be made by the Postmaster General within a month, although it is possible that it would be longer than this before the appointment goes through.

John Baughn, who, it is understood, was a candidate for the position, did not take the examination.

METEORS WINNERS IN EASY GAME

Annexing their sixth straight victory, St. Bridg's Meteors defeated the Xenia Imperials at the Rink Wednesday night 4-1-4-4, after the Springfield Buckeyes scheduled contenders had cancelled their game at the last minute.

The Buckeyes were billed widely for the game, a telephone message received at eight o'clock announced that they would be unable to play. Rather than disappoint the crowd on hand the Meteors management arranged a game with the Imperials.

Is It Yours

One of the most interesting historical figures to read about is Charles James Fox, a British statesman whose eccentricities and genius made him beloved by writers of both history and fiction.

Fox was born in London in 1749, and seems to have had the most indulgent father on record. There is a story that the father ad promised he should see the garden wall built, but that it was done while the boy was away, whereupon the father, in order to keep his promise, had a part of the wall torn down and built over again so that his son might watch the process. The father quite adored his sons, took them traveling with him, but let them drift into the most immoral society.

Fox grew up with a weakness for gambling and an affectionate disposition. He was always in debt to the money lenders, a fact that he took with great cheerfulness. He called his vestibule where his Jewish creditors sat the 'Jerusalem Chamber,' a pun on the name of the famous Jerusalem Chamber in Westminster Abbey—a pun, by the way, that will probably be quoted for centuries.

He belonged to the party that opposed forcing the American colonies to pay unjust taxation, and that among other things made him unpopular with George III. Nevertheless, he was the foremost man in public life when Pitt died, and the King was compelled to make him Secretary of State. He died when he was 57 years old and is buried in Westminster Abbey.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"When attending a luncheon or dinner where place cards are used, should one leave them on the table or take them as a souvenir?" asked Jane.

"Place cards should be retained, the hostess having prepared them to be taken away by the guests," replied her mother.

"When a married couple are giving a dinner in honor of another married couple, whom should the host and hostess take into the dining room?" asked the young hostess.

"The host should enter the room first with the lady guest of honor and the hostess goes in last with the husband who is the guest," advised her aunt.

"Should a widow use her husband's initials or name or her own on her 'visiting cards'?" asked a young widow. "Public sentiment allows a widow to use her husband's initials or name, but legally she has no right to," said her friend.

"If I meet a friend when walking with another friend on the street should I introduce them?" inquired Jack.

"If only a short pause is made an introduction is not necessary, but if a longer stop is made introductions should be made," said her father.

HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

Now he eats everything in sight and romps with playmates.

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constipation and indigestion. Nothing did him any good until we tried Milk's Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and has outgrown his childhood trouble. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before."—Wm. Heart, 424 Bundy Ave., New Castle, Ind.

Weak, ailing children usually start eating and getting stronger from the very first bottle of Milk's Emulsion. Most children like to take it, because it really tastes good. A trial costs nothing.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved. It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. FRENCH GIRL NAMED BY WIFE IN SUIT FOR HER DIVORCE

Shippey Affair Revived After Being Apparently Patched Up.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 13.—Mrs. Mary Blake Shippey, wife of Lee Shippey, writer and former Y. M. C. A. worker, has filed suit for divorce in Circuit court. The name of Madeleine Bain, Paris, the girl with whom Shippey now is living in Monterey, Mexico is mentioned in the complaint against Shippey. Mrs. Shippey asks for the custody of her minor son.

The petition charges that Shippey is living with Miss Bain, "the paternity of whose son he boastfully acknowledges."

In the bill Mrs. Shippey states that she was married to Lee Shippey in Kansas City, August 19, 1908. They separated Jan. 31, 1920, through no fault of her own, according to the petition.

The first break between Shippey and Mrs. Shippey came when the Y. M. C. A. workers return to New York from France, after having served in Paris. Mrs. Shippey met him in New York. There, according to the wife, she was informed that her husband desired her to obtain a divorce, so he could marry Miss Bain.

Leola Lucey or Phonograph—Which?

Leola Lucey sings Broadway's hits with a silvery sweetness and joyousness which few other musical comedy stars can match.

Miss Lucey made a RE-CREATION for the New Edison of a recent song-success. When it was completed Mr. Edison subjected it to his famous tone-test, officially to prove that the RE-CREATED voice had every quality of Miss Lucey's living voice.

This picture shows how the test was made. Miss Lucey came to the Edison Recording Studios on Fifth Avenue, New York. To get a direct comparison between her RE-CREATED voice and her living voice, Miss Lucey stood beside the instrument and began to sing the song. Suddenly she ceased and the New Edison continued alone. That was the test.

The Committee found that Miss Lucey's living voice and her RE-CREATED voice were without a shade of difference. The RE-CREATION became "official" for

JANUARY BANQUET OF C. OF C. TOUTED AS BIG AFFAIR

The January banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to be held next Tuesday and which is being featured in the publicity, as a January Jubilee is prophesied as one of the biggest of the monthly affairs that has yet been arranged for the benefit of the members.

Captain Harry Hurd, is highly rated as an entertaining and educational speaker. His vast experience while on detached service with the British army on relief in the near East, has ably fitted him as an orator on the subject he will use "Social and Business Conditions in the Near East."

Captain Hurd has been working with Herbert Hoover in his relief work among the countries of Palestine, Turkey, Syria and others of the famine stricken and war ridden territories, that have been crying to America for relief. His tale is picturesque, as well as educational.

Besides Captain Hurd's address, George V. Sheridan, publisher of the Springfield Sun, will speak on the "Management of a City Newspaper." The Chamber of Commerce orchestra will furnish the music and the banquet will be prepared by Jacob Kany. Members expecting to attend are requested to phone in their reservations.

DEPARTMENT HEADS MUST SOLVE PROBLEM

Washington, Jan. 13.—With the Department of State and Labor still undecided over the disposition of Lord Mayor Daniel J. O'Callaghan of Cork, who arrived at Newport News last week as a stowaway without a passport, it was indicated yesterday that President Wilson would leave to his cabinet officers the solving out of the inter-departmental differences which have arisen over the case.

Should Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson continue to show no disposition to take cognizance of the request of Acting Secretary of State Norman H. Davis that O'Callaghan be deported, it was stated today by officials of the State Department, the Department of Justice may be asked to take a hand in seeing that the order of the Secretary of State is executed.

NAN MEETS MR. BURNS

CHAPTER 63

"Mr. Williams, I believe you know Mr. Burns. Mrs. Williams, may I present Mr. Burns to you?" Mildred Stowell, lovely in sheer black with a rope of pearls, and as Dick and I entered the room where the guests were waiting dinner.

"I am delighted to meet Mrs. Williams," Mr. Burns, a very good looking man about 45 years old, said as he bowed over my hand. His eyes had shown plainly that he was surprised, and that he admired me.

He then poked to Dick for a moment. But dinner was announced, and he again turned to me.

"I believe I am to take you in, Mrs. Williams," he said, as he offered his arm.

I made no reply, but I think I blushed at the glance he bent upon me. Dick was at the other end of the table with Miss Lake. I wished he had been placed where I could see him, and he me. I was so glad he was pleased with my appearance, my dress. His admiration meant more to me than that of anyone else in the world.

I may have been a bad wife even at this time, but no thought of any other man had ever entered my head. I cared nothing for their admiration except as it flattered my pride in myself—my judgment in dressing.

"Williams is a luck man," Mr. Burns said after a while.

"He is a very fine man," I bragged.

"Indeed he is," he answered, but without animation. Then, "You haven't been married long?"

"Oh, yes, 40 or 50 years, I laughed.

"Quite old married people, and still in love," he smiled as he said it, yet I did not quite like his tone.

"Yes, indeed!" I replied with emphasis. "No woman could help loving Dick if he were her husband."

"Fortunate Dick!" he said, then commenced to talk very entertainingly of other things. He had traveled much, and was most interesting. I enjoyed my dinner immensely, and yet was rather glad when it was over and we adjourned to the music room where the tables were placed for bridge.

In the interim between dinner and our game I went over beside Dick.

"Did you have a nice time at dinner?" I asked. "I tried to catch your eyes, but couldn't."

"How did you like Burns? Be nice. How did you like Burns? Be nice to him dear. He's a wizard at making money, and has promised to give me some very valuable information."

"He's very nice when he talks of something besides me," I returned.

"He thinks you a lucky fellow because you have me," I added archly, not averse to making Dick also compliment me.

"Of course I'm lucky! You are very lovely tonight, Nan. I am terribly proud of you. That blue and silver suits you perfectly."

"Come, you two!" Mrs. Stowell called. "Stop making love and take your places at the tables."

I found my card and it put me opposite Mr. Burns. I was not an expert player, and told him so.

"Never mind! We will have luck, perhaps," he said, as he dealt the cards.

We were lucky. Clara and Mr. Stowell played against us, and we beat them terribly. It was 1 o'clock when we stopped. Mr. Burns asked if he might call and Dick urged him to make it soon.

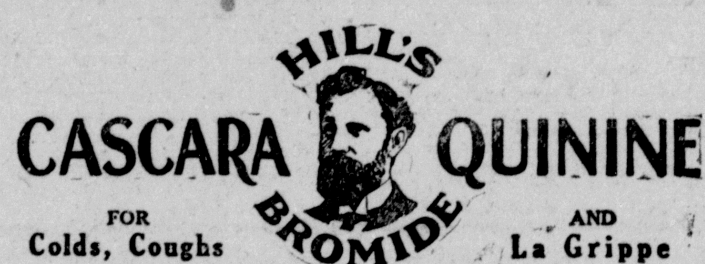

"We'll have someone in to make a fourth and have a little game," he said.

"Thank you, I shall avail myself very soon of your permission." He spoke to Dick, but looked at me. I murmured something, and then we said good night to Mr. and Mrs. Stowell, and left. Clara and Jim rode home with us, of course.

"You made an awful hit with that Mr. Burns, Nan," Clara said. "I thought Dick's nonsense would be proved true, and he would carry you off in some sort of motor car, instead of a pumpkin chariot. He looked as if he would like it."

NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, AILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle after another until I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. BRITTEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Another Michigan Woman says:
"I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GRANGER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nerves, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues" and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

"More Food"

demand the city consumer. Farmers responded with the biggest crops they had grown for years. Then what happened? Poor transportation facilities, high freight rates, concerted consumer effort to lower prices on farm products. How can farmers sell at a fair profit?

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

for next week carries a great story showing how farmers are shouldering marketing problems that really belong to the city consumer and are solving them where he has failed.

Careful farming methods had resulted in bumper crops in New Jersey. New York City needed the food; but New York City offered little cooperation toward getting it. How the State Bureau of Markets stepped in, securing adequate transportation and developing a unique system of direct marketing, is the theme of this most suggestive and helpful article.

In marketing, as in every other farm problem, THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN presents the up-to-date, useful fact stuff it will pay you to read. And the 52 big weekly issues that reach you during a year cost but $1.00—and they're a bargain.

FIRE DAMAGES COLUMBUS CITY HALL AT NIGHT

Loss Estimated in Excess Of $200,000 By Officials.

FIREMAN IS INJURED

Blaze Occurs Wednesday Night With Many In Building.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—Fire, which caused a loss estimated to exceed $200,000 destroyed the roof, third floor and parts of the second and first floors of the city hall last night. The fire is attributed to spontaneous combustion in the attic which had been used as a storage room. One fireman was slightly hurt. When fire broke out over 100 persons were in the building. Some were playing basketball on the third floor. Others were attending a council meeting. The damage to the building is believed to be less than $75,000, the greatest loss being due to water from the firemen's hose, damaging records. Responding to four alarms sounded within 18 minutes, every piece of fire apparatus in Columbus was used in fighting the spectacular blaze. Roofs of the Grand theater, just east of the city hall and of other adjoining structures caught fire, but these blazes were quickly extinguished.

BALLOONISTS ENROUTE TO TORONTO GIVEN BIG OVATIONS

Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton "Make Up" After Quarrel.

Washington, Jan. 13.—"There will be no court martial of Lieut. Farrell or Lieut. Hinton because of their personal encounter following their return to civilization after being lost in the snow swept wilds of Canada," Secretary of the Navy Daniels said this afternoon. A court of inquiry which will be ordered will probe the personal conduct of the officers and the secretary predicted that the inquiry would show so much bravery in the men that "any personal difference would be entirely overshadowed."

North Bay, Ont., Jan. 13.—The train carrying the three American balloonists who have made so much recent history—Lieutenants Farrell, Kloor and Hinton—passed through here early today en route to Toronto. The balloonists will stop over in Toronto a few hours only and will then leave for New York which they expect to reach tomorrow morning.

Lieut. Hinton and Farrell were "pals" again today. They had "made up," Lieut. Farrell said that he had become convinced that Lieut. Hinton did not mean that the letter he sent his wife should be public and was willing to be friends again as he believed that Hinton did not mean all of the things he wrote. Both Hinton and Farrell blamed the nervous strain they were under, due to loss of sleep and fatigue for the outbreak at Matinee in which Farrell knocked Hinton across the room. Both today declared they wanted to forget the incident.

The three officers were given a cheering, though brief reception at Cochrane, Ont., last night when their train passed through that town.

President Stevens of the board of trade made a speech in the railroad station congratulating the balloonists on their miraculous escape. A crowd of townspeople crowded around the officers, shaking their hands. Lieut. Farrell made a short speech, thanking the citizens for their cordial reception and for the many courtesies shown them since their balloon landed near Moose Factory. The train stopped at Cochrane only 20 minutes.

DAYTON ENGINEER GIVEN HONOR

Columbus, Jan. 13.—Parker S. Book, Dayton, county engineer of Montgomery county, was chosen president at the 42nd annual meeting of the Ohio Engineering Society here. Robert N. Ward, Piquette, was elected vice-president and John W. Graham, Columbus, secretary treasurer.

Collapse of Greek Drive Against Turks Is Feared

London, Jan. 13.—The Greek offense against the Turkish Nationalists in the Brussa sector of the Anatolian front has collapsed and a critical situation is developing at Smyrna the base of operations, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch received here today. Previous advices had stated that the Turkish nationalists penetrated the Greek front at several places but that the Greeks were preparing for a new counter offensive.

BREAK BETWEEN PRESIDENT WILSON AND DEMOCRATIC SENATORS WIDENS

White House Silent On Wilson Attitude Toward Tariff Bill.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Democratic Senators opposed to the emergency tariff bill are utterly "at sea" today as to the probable attitude of the president towards the measure.

Since they joined with Republican senators in overriding the president's veto of the resolution resuscitating the war finance corporation, they have been cut off from communication with the White House.

Although they are banking upon the president to veto the pending tariff bill, if it passes the senate and upon their ability to prevent the president's veto being overridden, they admitted they were "in the dark" as to what the president will actually do if the measure reaches him.

A report that he may permit the bill to become a law automatically, if only as an expression of unconcern regarding the desires of Democratic senators who deserted him when he opposed the attempt to revive the war finance corporation, reached them today.

It increased their admitted perplexity over the unusual situation, the democratic leaders of the senate being completely out of touch with the wishes of a Democratic president.

Efforts to communicate with the president through Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, have availed Democratic senators nothing, it is said.

Their worries have been increased by the known defection in their own ranks. They have discovered that from eight to eleven Democratic sen-

REQUEST WILSON TO APPEAL FOR AID

Washington, Jan. 13.—President Wilson would be asked to issue a public appeal for American contributions in behalf of the starving people of Europe by a resolution approved by the house foreign affairs committee.

The resolution is a substitute for one by Representative French, Republican, Idaho, proposing that the government officially endorse the work of European relief council headed by Herbert Hoover.

It increased their admitted perplexity over the unusual situation, the democratic leaders of the senate being completely out of touch with the wishes of a Democratic president.

Efforts to communicate with the president through Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, have availed Democratic senators nothing, it is said.

Their worries have been increased by the known defection in their own ranks. They have discovered that from eight to eleven Democratic senators from agricultural states as a result of strong pressure brought to bear upon them by their farming constituents, stand ready to vote for the bill when it is reported by the senate finance committee. Hence the filibuster they have planned against the bill, in the form of numerous amendments ranging from the voluminous codification bill to the immigration and soldiers bonus measures. They intend to delay final action on the bill as far as possible and to resort to every available parliamentary and dilatory device to prevent its passage.

Several of their leaders declared they were confident the president would veto the bill, and that it had no chance of becoming a law at this session, but even they admitted they were completely ignorant as to "what may be passing through the president's mind." They frankly confessed they are greatly worried over the ominous silence being maintained at the White House.

WOULD LIMIT EXPENSES OF STATE FOR UPKEEP OF OFFICIAL'S HOME

States Share Limited To $15,000 Annually In Bill Now Up—Blow Is Aimed at Professional Bondsmen—Would Repeal School Bill.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—Maintenance of the governor's mansion, East Broad street, is provided for in a bill introduced in the house by Rep. Ramsey, Toledo, limiting such expense on the part of the state to $25,000 a year with a minimum expenditure of $15,000 a year. Another section of the measure provides for a $9,000 appropriation to maintain the governor's home until July 1 next, the end of the fiscal year.

Rep. Morris, Hamilton county, introduced a bill providing penitentiary imprisonment of from 25 to 35 years for persons convicted of hold ups. The present law provides for a minimum sentence of three years.

A blow at professional bondsmen in large cities is contained in a bill introduced by Senator Day, Cleveland, seeking to centralize responsibility for bonds on a bail commissioner to be appointed by the chief justice, or presiding judge, empowered to fix the amount of bail. Forfeited bonds would be made a lien against the property of the bondsman and the lien would be closed after 30 days. The bail commissioner would keep records of all criminals brought into court and repeaters would be compelled to furnish heavier bond than first offenders.

Representative C. M. Miller, Coshocton county, consistent with election campaign promises, introduced a bill designed to repeal the law providing for county and district school superintendents.

Measures intended to curb speeding autoists were introduced by Reps.

Weller, Cleveland; Butterworth, Cincinnati and Foutz, Morgan county. The Weller bill requires drivers of machines which hurt or kill a person to notify police and families of victims and obtain medical aid for those injured. The Butterworth bill provides against speeding and a $500 fine and from 30 days to six months imprisonment for each subsequent offense. The Foutz bill seeks to extend the attachment laws to cover cases of damage to property by non-resident auto speeders.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—At a brief session of the house today Rep. Griswold, Geauga county, introduced a bill seeking to limit the debt incurred by taxing districts throughout Ohio, and to establish a "pay as you go" system in borrowing funds. He introduced also, a resolution proposing that the state constitution be amended so as to limit the power of the state legislature to authorize taxing districts to issue bonds.

CITY COMMISSIONER FROCK PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE

Springfield Official To Be Tried Next Tuesday.

Springfield, O., Jan. 13.—City Commissioner John D. Frock pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault and battery in police court. His trial was set for next Tuesday.

Commissioner Frock is charged by Policeman Martin Donnelly with assaulting Health Director R. R. Richison at the meeting of the city commission Monday night during a hearing relative to charges filed by Commissioner Frock against Dr. C. L. Brown, dairy and food inspector, alleging he tipped off a local dairy company prior to an inspection.

INCREASED PAY FOR COMMISSIONERS UP

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—At an annual session here, the county commissioners' association of Ohio registered approval of the proposal that the state legislature increase the salaries of county commissioners by basing these salaries on the tax duplicate of the county and population with a minimum of $1,200 and a maximum of $5,000 annually.

WADE IS CONVICTED; SENTENCED TO DEATH

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 13.—Edward B. Wade, young milk dealer, who was convicted of the brutal murder of George B. Nott, was today sentenced to "be hanged by the neck until dead" on May 20, in the state prison at Wethersfield, Conn., by Judge Hinman.

CONVICT RETURNS TO JAIL TO WIPE OUT PAST RECORD

Surrenders To Police When He Learns He Is To Be a Father.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—James McElvey went back to a cell in Joliet today because he wanted to "have everything clear," behind him, for his bride of two months and the child that is to come.

McElvey escaped from Joliet prison last May. He was serving a sentence of from one year to life for highway robbery. He had been twice paroled and each time sent back for violation of the parole laws.

Four weeks after his escape he met a girl and before long they were married. Eventually McElvey learned he was to be a father.

Then he went to the girl he had married and told her that he was a fugitive convict. They talked it over, prayed together and McElvey called up Detective Sergeant William Stapleton, the man who arrested him for robbery and told the officer to "come and get him."

"I'm proud of you," the girl wife said as the detective took her husband away. "You're just noble, that what you are. And I'll be waiting if they keep you in for 20 years."

NAVAL STATION OF GREAT LAKES NOT TO BE ABANDONED

Daniels Asserts He Will Contest Any Such Suggestion.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The Great Lakes Naval station is not to be abandoned by June 30, and will never be abandoned if Secretary Daniels can prevent it, the secretary said today.

"The Great Lakes station is second to none in importance," the secretary said. "I don't understand where these rumors come from that the station is to be abandoned unless it is from talk of economy in the navy. If congress should attempt to abandon this station I would vigorously oppose it."

The Great Lakes station, the secretary said, is important as a training station, as it is in the center of the middle western states, where the navy draws its bulk of recruits.

Difficulties in securing coal for the station may have led to the rumor the secretary said.

CITIES OF NATION HAVE OVER HALF U. S. POPULATION

For First Time In History Of Country "Urban Territory" Leads.

Washington, Jan. 13.—For the first time in history, more than half of the population of the United States is living in "urban territory" the census bureau announced today.

A statement issued by the census bureau declares that the trend of population from the country to the city is shown in the 1920 census figures and that of the total population of the United States 54,714,475 are living in urban territory and 51,394,235 in rural districts.

BRITISH PEERESSES TO EXPLORE AFRICA

Three charming and adventurous British peeresses, Viscountess Maidstone, the Duchess of Sutherland and the Marchioness of Litchfield, plan to accompany their husbands on an expedition up the Blue Nile. The purpose is to go farther into that part of Africa than any white woman have ever ventured. All three women served during the World War. The beautiful Viscountess Maidstone is American born. She was Margaret Drexel, daughter of Anthony J. Drexel, of Philadelphia. The Marchioness of Litchfield was Hon. Ivy Gordon-Lennox, niece of the Duke of Richmond, and one of the most celebrated sportswomen in England. SOLDIERS ESCAPE FROM STOCKADE

Chillicothe, Jan. 13.—John Turner, private of the 2nd Infantry, at Camp Sherman held in the stockade on a charge of larceny and alleged to have been a "go-between" in the Indianapolis "gun deal," whereby professional gunmen were supplied with arms, escaped from the stockade.

Three others went with him. They were James Ogden, 6th Cavalry; Hershell Powell, 40th Infantry, and Pursell Datson, 19th Infantry.

JAPAN WAR OFFICE EXPRESSES REGRET IN DEATH OF AMERICAN

Slaying Of U. S. Officer By Japanese Sentry Admitted Serious.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The United States will make formal protest to Japan concerning the shooting of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, U. S. N., by a Japanese sentry at Vladivostok, the state department announced today. The diplomatic question involved is whether the Japanese troops have the right to challenge an American citizen in Vladivostok. The protest will be made through the American diplomatic representative in Japan.

The latest reports from Japan indicate that the shooting was done by an excitable sentry and was the act of an individual, state department officials said.

Tokio, Jan. 13.—"Regret" was expressed in a statement issued by the war office today, admitting that Lieut. W. H. Langdon, chief engineer of the American cruiser Albany had been shot and killed by a Japanese sentry at Vladivostok.

The war office statement declared that an investigation of the Langdon killing is under way. The announcement from the war office was the first official admission here of the shooting.

MAKE CABINET ANNOUNCEMENT IN SHORT TIME

Harding To Make Known Two Selections In Next Ten Days.

WORKS ON SPEECH

Expects To Complete Rough Draft of Address By February 1.

Marietta, O., Jan. 13.—President elect Harding plans to complete the rough draft of his inaugural address the first of the week in February, it was announced today. He has given close study recently to the pronouncements made by each of the former presidents on taking office, and has collected a mass of data bearing on the problems which will face his own administration.

It also became known today that he expects to announce the appointment and acceptance of at least two of the members of his cabinet within the next ten days. Representation for New England upon the cabinet, it is said, was a subject of discussion today between the president elect and Governor R. Livingston Beechman of Rhode Island.

WEEKS TO CONFER

Governor Beechman's visit took on added significance when it became known that Senator Weeks of Massachusetts is expected to confer with Senator Harding before the end of the week. Senator Weeks has been regarded as one of the men most prominently in mind for secretary of war or the navy.

Mrs. Ogden Reid of New York, who was closely connected with the work of the Republican national committee during the campaign and Governor Beechman breakfasted with Senator and Mrs. Harding this morning.

Senator Harding discussed financial conditions and the affairs of the railroads of the country with S. Davis Warfield of Baltimore, president of the Association of Railway Securities Owners.

Internal affairs of Porto Rico and its problems were placed before the next president by Felix Gordoba Davila, Porto Rican commissioner at Washington who outlined industrial and labor conditions of the island in detail.

Among other callers was E. G. McConamanager of the Buffalo Commercial and Sidney B. Thompson and T. W. Fleming of Cleveland.

DISCREDIT REPORT THAT LENINE IS SERIOUSLY SICK

German Specialists Called To Attend Professor Kartov.

Berlin, Jan. 13.—The report that Nicolai Lenine is ill at Moscow is not confirmed and it was generally discredited in Berlin today.

Two German specialists who had been summoned from Berlin were being called to treat Professor Kartov, president of the supreme economic council of the soviet, who was desperately ill of heart trouble, it was learned today.

German physicians reached the Russian border and their summons was countermanded by wireless. Both turned back to Berlin.

The arrangement of the trip of the German Doctors to Moscow by way of Riga was made by Victor Kopp, emissary of the soviet government in Germany.

Kopp received word that Prof. Kartov, in addition to the heart affection had contracted blood poisoning and was in desperate condition. The radiogram contained a long list of the sick man's symptoms in order to assist the German doctors in diagnosing the case.

The suggestion was advanced here that Kartov may have used a non de plume, for Lenine, but this theory was scouted. Kopp who is acquainted with all the soviet officials said that Kartov is a real personage and is a prominent figure in the economic councils of Russia.

Captain and Crew of Lost Ship Rescued by Freighter

Rescuing Ship 100 Miles Away When Call For Help Received.

New York, Jan. 13.—The captain and crew of 24 men of the Norwegian freighter Ontaneda, en route from New York to Norway, were rescued just as their ship was sinking one thousand miles east of Boston, by the freighter Fanadhead, according to a wireless message received here today. The message was relayed by the Cunard liner Imperator. Captain Erfassen and the crew of the distressed vessel, which was on her beams end when the Fanadhead reached her, had taken to the life boats although a storm was raging, the radiogram said. The rescuing ship was 100 miles distant when it received the Ontaneda's call for help. The rescued captain and crew will be taken to Dublin, the next port of call of the Fanadhead.

WANTS $10,000 FOR ALLEGED SLANDER OF HER CHARACTER

Suit for $10,000 damages has been brought by Mrs. Sarah Nye against Mrs. Sarah Christopher, alleging statements in injuring the plaintiff's name and reputation, the suit being filed in Common Pleas court Wednesday.

The petition states that the plaintiff is a practical nurse and housekeeper, is a widow and poor. It is charged that on January 7 the defendant in the action made assertions that the plaintiff "was a thief and had stolen a quilt" from her. The petition charges that at solicitation of the defendant Marshal Al Zeiner, of Jamestown, searched her suitcase while she was at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Weimer, thereby injuring the plaintiff in her good name, character and personal feelings. She asserts that she was humiliated in her feelings and in her good name and reputation and that such slanderous and false charges as were made by the defendant, will militate against the plaintiff and cause great and irreparable injury and damage. She asks for $10,000 and attorney fees. Attorneys W. A. Paxson and W. S. Paxson, of Jamestown, represent the plaintiff in the damage suit.

Case Transferred.

By petition the case of C. T. Ewry against the Detroit, Toledo and Iron-ten Railroad company, asking for $29,539.75 damages as the result of an accident suffered some time ago, has been transferred from Common Pleas Court here to the United States District Court, Southern District of Ohio, Western Division.

The case of C. T. Ewry against the same defendants for Fred Ewry, a minor, who was also involved in the accident, has also been petitioned for removal to the district court. On posting of satisfactory bonds, the removal of the suits was allowed. The removal was necessary as the defendant company was a corporation in the state of Delaware and not an Ohio corporation. The suit of C. T. Ewry, for his son, Ferd E. Ewry, asks for $25,439.65 damages.

MOTORAIDS

The perfect lubrication for gas engines should either be completely consumed in the cylinders or not at all. An authority on gas engines lubrication, after many experiments, found that the lubricant that was not consumed at all, retained its full lubricating value so long as it remained in the cylinder. On the other hand the lubricant that is only partially consumed leaves a carbon deposit, while the lubricant that is wholly consumed leaves the cylinder dry.

The built-in luncheon cabinet is one of the latest patents in motor conveniences. For man or woman who loves to have a place for everything the motor cabinet will prove a source of much pleasure. The cabinet is built in the front of the tonneau in the back of the front seat.

The design has sufficient space for three thermos bottles in the pockets formed in the lining of the inside of the doors and beyond that there is space for a box and other luncheon containers. Over the hind door are two compartments, for other essentials for the luncheon. One of the chief beauties of this arrangement is the convenience with which a luncheon may be served while the car is moving.

Past driving is destructive to ordinary tires. Twenty five miles an hour and no faster will give the best results from the tire mileage. Drive slowly over rough roads and take turns cautiously and, also, increase tire inflation to two pounds above normal. It is a well known fact that the faster a tire is driven the more heat it generates internally and while normal speed will not raise the temperature to the danger point, excessive speeding will dry out the friction gum between the piles of fabric naturally will cause a separate, taking the life out of the tires. This excessive heat, drying out

Mr. C. E. Schwab, 1007 14th St., Canton, Ohio, writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and find it one of the best remedies on the market, especially good for children's coughs, as it does not contain any drug that is harmful." Serious sickness often follows lingering colds. Hard coughing racks a child's body and disturbs strength-giving sleep, and the poisons weaken the system so that disease cannot be warded off. When the clutch slips badly it is the usual practice to race the engine to make it move faster. It is much better to operate the engine more slowly, with a slight change in speed so as to attempt to cause the fly-wheel to carry the clutch around.

It is a disagreeable job to put grease into the differential and gear box, but a simple device has been arranged to make it easy. A brass tube, twelve inches long and of such a diameter to fit easily into the plug hole of the cases to be filled, is obtained. A round stick of wood a yard long and a good sliding fit for the tube, is also procured.

Now filled the tube with grease and put one end in the plug hole. Insert the stick in the other end of the tube and push until all the grease has been pushed into the gear box or differential.

FAIL TO FIND FLYERS BODIES

Although the hydroplane in which Carl Fisher, former Xenian, and George E. Smith, Dayton flyers, lost their lives when it crashed into the Mississippi river at Tiptonville, Tenn., Sunday has been raised from the water, no trace of the bodies of the missing aviators was found.

The plane was raised after three days' labor on the part of searchers. Little information was learned from an examination of the fatal plane, that the flyers had gone down with it. It is thought the water washing against the ship for the last three days, may have washed the bodies down stream.

AIRPLANES HOP OFF FOR LONG TRIP

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Ten planes of the F-5-L type of the Pacific naval aerial fleet flying from San Diego to Panama left LaUnion, Salvador, yesterday, for the gulf of Nicoya, a delayed wireless message to the commandant of the twelfth naval district from the supply ship Kenawha today stated. The planes hopping off yesterday were Nos. 2, 3, 5, 9, 10, 12, 15, 16, 17 and 18. The planes had expected to remain at LaUnion until the 15th for rest and repairs and the early departure was taken here as an indication that the air fleet is accomplishing the long flight with a minimum of trouble.

A later message stated that the NC-5 and NC-6 and the F-5-L planes Nos. 4 and 7 arrived at LaUnion yesterday and were expected to leave for the gulf of Nicoya today.

THINKS DRECO A RARE MEDICINE OF REAL MERIT

Mrs. Brown of Morning Sun, O., says it relieved dizzy headaches, gas on the stomach and nervousness.

Several days ago Mrs. R. B. Wright was in the drug store telling of what her close friend, Mrs. R. J. Brown, of Morning Sun, near Hamilton, O., thinks of Dreco. She said: "Mrs. Brown is very much delighted with what Dreco did for her and it seems this medicine has a wonderful power to build up weak, rundown systems. She often suffered from biliousness and dizzy spells, headaches and gas on the stomach after meals. Her nerve were weak and she did not get refreshing sleep but would awake feeling dull, tired and aching. She also suffered daily from constipation.

"It is really remarkable how Dreco has improved her condition. She now enjoys big meals without the slightest gas formation and her digestion seems perfect. Her kidneys have been greatly strengthened and her liver cleaned of bile so that she has no more dizziness or headaches. Her bowel action is regular and natural. She sleeps sound and rises fresh and full of vigor. Really she thinks Dreco a rare medicine full of merit."

Dreco has proven it's powers in many instances to overcome bad cases of gas in the stomach, poor digestion, sluggish liver, weak kidneys, shattered nerves, impaired appetite and constipation. The action is usually very prompt and the effects lasting. All good druggists sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Xenia at Sohn's Drug Store.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

John R.—Physicians concede that olive oil is one of the most fattening foods. You should, of course, take the best grade that you can lay. You must remember, however, that it is not what you eat but what you digest makes you stout. I would advise you to go on with the olive oil, and to get at least one hour's extra sleep every night. If you are very nervous or over-worked, you may be having difficulty in digesting your food.

Anxious—I think from your description that you are a little over-weight, in which case a general reduction will reduce the double chin. Meantime rub it with ice for a few minutes every day. The marks on the face are not uncommon as a result of child-birth, think they will disappear themselves in time.

Alice E.—It is possible for you to get Violet Ray treatments, I think they will benefit your scalp. Meantime, I would advise you to rub the scalp, the night before you shampoo, with crude oil, heated as hot as you can stand it. Use sulphur soap when on shampoo, and sulphur ointment or olive oil on the scalp, every few days if possible, have some of the hair cut.

E. B. J.—There are various explanations for white spots on the nails; some say it is nervousness, some say it is due to bruises. They are not a disfigurement; if I were you I would not worry about them. Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope for directions for making a flesh building cold cream and how to massage wrinkles.

Bob—Too much candy is bad for the complexion. No candy is absolutely necessary for one's health and well-being.

J. E. T.—Powderedorris root is the best thing I know of for a dry shampoo. Corn meal is also very good.

Sally T.—Any sort of leg exercises tend to reduce fat legs and to develop thin ones. Dancing is particularly good. You may be to fat all over in which case the legs and ankles would also be too stout.

Blue Eyed Blonde—If you are under weight or ill you will have sunken cheeks, and all the cold cream massaging in the world will not make them plump. You must build yourself up physically, then the cheeks will round out of themselves, since you are still young.

Peggy W.—You are in a trying position, since you have so many members of your family to please. But don't wear your hair in ear puffs, for this style is not good for the hair and never was really fashionable. Comb your hair softly back from the face, and make a simple knot in the back and I think probably you will please everybody.

Freckles—Artificial hair in any form is very bad to wear, because it tends to overload the head and to heat the scalp.

M. H. T.—Turkish baths are very healthful and they will also help you reduce if you spend a little extra time in the steam room.

RULING HANDED DOWN.

Washington, Jan. 13.—American passenger carrying steamship lines will either go out of business or transfer their passenger ships to foreign flags unless permitted to sell.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PARIS WOMEN ADOPT SIMPLE HAIR STYLES

Paris, Jan. 12.—Are the intricate coiffures, the pride and joy of the average woman, to disappear for good and for all?

Just at present arisienne are devoting themselves to simplicity when it comes to their hair, which they arrange in the style affected by men since the war, and known as the aviator's haircut.

The hair is brushed tightly back with a ring over each ear as the only tribute of femininity. The fashion-wise declare that this sort of style suits only brunettes, so a most likely development will be a tremendously increased number of brunettes.

HARDING'S INAUGURATION TO BE CUT TO THE QUICK IN EXPENSE.

For a long time nothing has pleased the country so well as Senator Harding's edict to cut out all proposed extravagant expenses connected with his inauguration as President next 4th of March. He has even gone so far as to propose the elimination of the outdoor ceremony of taking the oath of office, and to take it in the Senate Chamber, which would involve no preparatory expense. To this proposal, the Inauguration Committee has agreed.

Instead of using the $50,000 which Congress already has appropriated for government expenses, such as the erection of the inaugural platform and amphitheater at the East front of the Capitol, the preparing of engraved invitations, the enlisting of additional police and similar incidentals, the total governmental expense is not expected to be more than $3,000.

Of course the taking of the oath of office outdoors, gives opportunity for many thousands of people to witness this ceremony, but it is at a great expense to the nation, and this, Senator Harding has decided can be eliminated this year, when it behooves the country to save every possible dollar.

Ordinarily it has been considered due to the public to give this spectacular outdoor ceremony, as a momentous event in the nation's life, but this year, the country having just been involved in such enormous war expenses, the President-elect sees fit to save to the nation all unnecessary expenses connected with his inauguration.

It can well be considered that the taking of this resolution by Senator Harding has been one of the greatest instances of self-negation, of self-denial, on his part, ever shown by man—for we are all in the same boat when it comes to the matter of self-pride. And where is the man who will say that it would not have been more gratifying to Mr. Harding to have this ceremony witnessed by the public.

It goes without saying—that is, it is understood—that Washington city is "mad as a wet hen" over this casting of cold water upon its once-in-four years season of hilarity—the spectacular part of the induction of a new President. What, says Washington, does an inauguration amount to, if no great crowd to witness the ceremony—no great parades—no tremendously great inauguration ball—no hotels crowded with guests—no fuss and feathers over the event?—"in dust and ashes we cover our head."

But the balance of the nation can stand the matter with serenity. In fact, Senator Harding has already received numerous dispatches congratulating him on the matter.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE MR. HARDING'S JOB OF PICKING A CABINET?

Mrs. Todgers was of the opinion that to get a real insight into human nature one had to keep a boarding house. Undoubtedly a great deal is to be said for the educational advantages of that ancient and respectable calling, but if Mrs. Todgers had ever happened to be President-elect of the United States she might have qualified her dictum.

Mr. Harding probably knows nothing about the troubles of a boarding house keeper, or of the jealousies that assail boarders in connection with the distribution of the tender parts of the chicken or in the matter of clean towels, but Mr. Harding, after a couple of months' experience as President-elect, undoubtedly could give Mrs. Todgers pointers on human weaknesses that would make that lady open her eyes. Mr. Harding's own eyes have been opened, if we may trust accounts that reach us, and Mr. Harding has had considerable dealings with his fellowmen, too, before now. But it happens this is the first time he ever was elected President or set himself to the task of forming a cabinet.

In that undertaking he has discovered enough to enable him to inform Mrs. Todgers, if she were present for an exchange of ideas, that the handing round of the more popular parts of a table fowl and the distribution of cabinet places are processes of very similar character, in that in neither case is it possible to satisfy everybody. Neither fowls nor cabinets have members enough.

It is hoped the experience Mr. Harding is going through will not cause him to form too hard an opinion of his fellowmen. He probably will reflect that he is seeing the worst side of them, and that in his subsequent relations with them their better natures will be in the ascendant.—Kansas City Star.

A COMPLETE EDITORIAL.

From the Chicago Evening Post.

Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, in the course of a speech in the senate, offered these somewhat illuminating reflections:

"In Chicago the other day I visited the international livestock exhibition. I do not remember ever seeing a more wonderful exhibition. I thought: 'Is there a square mile in the world where so much business is done as on that one square mile in Chicago on which the packing industry is located?'"

"Here is a business that has grown not only in volume, but in perfection of handling and distributing, and now we want to turn it over to be managed by a commission created by congress."

"Not a member of that commission could manage successfully any one department of that industry. The commissioners are not going to make investigations personally. Who will? Somebody that has passed a civil service examination; more than likely persons who never conducted business to any extent in all their lives. Who is to issue the orders and regulations? Men who know nothing about the business."

"If the time has come to license business in the United States, treat them all alike. If the time has come when business must be run in the United States by a lot of $1,500 and $1,600 clerks, directed by a commission here in Washington, let it apply to all business."

With The Women of Today

Only one woman is entitled to wear the world war medal of the New York police department. She is Mrs. Rose Taylor, attached to the station house in the White Light district. Mrs. Taylor did war work in France for twenty-two months with the Post-Graduate Base Hospital Unit.

Eligibility to wear the war medal is only one of Mrs. Taylor's distinctions. She is said to know more secrets about the night life along the great white way than any other woman in the world. Life as she has seen it for the past ten years is not all bright and cheerful. Scarcely a night goes by when she is not called upon to play the big sister to some erring woman who is brought in from somewhere along Broadway.

The millionaire woman and the ragged girl look alike to Mrs. Taylor, and if they tell their real names no living soul is the wiser.

Sobbing these weak sisters in the early morning hours and sending them home in taxis if they can get bail is such strenuous work that Mrs. Taylor welcomed a layoff from the regular job to give her time to win that war medal in France. Wherever she goes it is manifest destiny that she will be in the thick of events.

The steamship Saratoga, on which she sailed to France, was rammed in New York harbor and all the passengers had to take to the lifeboats a couple of hours after their left the dock. Near the other side they were in a two-day battle with submarines. Eventually Mrs. Taylor got to Savona, and the things she did there would fill a book.

Before she became a policewoman Mrs. Taylor was a nurse in charge of Cornell Dispensary in New York.

Mrs. Taylor did not know what was the program when she was called to receive her medal. She was ushered into a room where there were 650 men of General Lafayette Police Post No. 460 of the American Legion. Presently another woman came in.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The burglar alarm and self-igniting burners on exhibition at the Atlas hotel, was shown to a Gazette man yesterday and are inventions of interest and value. The raising of a window or the opening of a door when the alarm is set starts a bell to ringing and lights the gas and in addition there are many little details which the gentlemen who have it in charge will take pleasure in showing you at any time.

An important meeting of the School Board was held last night at which action was taken with reference to the new school buildings which are being asked for by the residents of Orient Hill. The object of the meeting was stated by the president of the board to be that of considering the advisability of building a new school building in the west end and on Orient Hill. Mr. C. H. Kyle presented a petition signed by 530 citizens asking for a building in the west end. Another petition was presented asking that a new school house be erected on Orient Hill. It is now up to the voters as to what shall be done with regard to the matter.

Owing to delay at the Dayton end of the line in arranging a few minor details, the consolidation which was to have been effected between the traction lines will not go into force this week. And just when the consolidation will go into effect is something that cannot be determined. Just now the Rapid Transit line seems to be getting its line in good shape, having a force of twelve or fifteen men along the track, graveling and so forth, and altogether the question of consolidation seems to be as far off as ever.

Yesterday evening George Little appeared before the Probate Judge and asked that an injunction be granted, preventing the Citizens Telephone Company from proceeding with the system in this city. A temporary restraining order was issued but at present the men are still at work and the announcement is made that no attention will be paid to the order of the Probate Court, the claims being made that it has no jurisdiction in the matter. Just what the next step in the proceedings will be remains to be seen.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT
Philadelphia women advise a court of domestic relations for every city in the United States. The Philadelphia court has been surprisingly successful. In 1919, 21,449 couples were married and out of that number 1,311 separated. Each year in the six since the court was established the number of separations has decreased.

PLAIN MEAL COSTS $100 IS COMPLAINT

Paris, January 13.—Following complaints that a party of Chicagoans had been terrorized into paying $100 for a plain meal in Pere Tranquille, a famous restaurant, the Paris police raided the place.

Sixty persons were arrested, including 18 Americans, all of whom were permitted to go, after producing papers to identify themselves.

They were warned, however to keep away from clandestine resorts in the future.

REDUCE AMERICAN FORCE IN GERMANY

Washington, Jan. 13.—Reduction of the American forces of occupation in Germany from 15,000 to 8,000 has been ordered by the war department.

Secretary Baker wrote to Representative Byrnes, Democrat, South Carolina, that the reduction already is under way. He added that the ultimate withdrawal of the entire force was a matter "for future consideration."

The cost of operating the force of 15,000 was approximately $75,000 a day, Mr. Baker said, but under the terms of the armistice, Germany must pay the maintenance costs.

Rippling Rhymes

A TRUE STORY.

There was a man who owned some flats, out in a western town, fit dwellings for aristocrats, all painted white and brown; and renters took their kids and cats to them and settled down. In time the greedy rent, hogs rose, on get-rich courses bent; the hearts of many landlords froze, they grasped at every cent; and people soaked their furbelows, to pay the monthly rent. And landlords got an evil name throughout that plundered grad; they played a profiteering game that made the victims mad; said victims said it was a shame, as they dug up the scud. While other landlords raised the price, the hero of this tale said old time prices would suffice, old contracts should prevail; he would not ask an extra slice of hard-pressed tenants' kale. These tenants, being safe and sane, to gratitude not dead, when rent day came did not complain, or fear the landlord's tread; but they gave him a handsome cane, that had a golden head. Oh, all the tenants stood in line, and then, with seemingly mirth, they sprung their tribute, high and fine, to one of sterling worth; and he was moved to shedding brine that trickled to the earth. He gets more pleasure from this gift than do the pirates gay, the profiteers who strive to lift the prices every day, from all the coin their evil thrift has won and filed away.

FOUR APPLICANTS TAKE EXAMINATION FOR POST OFFICE JOB

Four applicants for the position of postmaster at Jamestown, took the civil service examination now necessary at the Federal building here Wednesday.

The four applicants who took the examination were Lawson S. O'Day, incumbent, under a temporary appointment, Francis Clark, John O. Ross and David Venard. The examination was in charge of the local civil service commission, of the Xenia office, consisting of Miss Cora Williams, George Hamilton and B. F. Eckler.

The papers as prepared by the candidates will be sent to the United States Civil Service commission by the local commission immediately, for grading and the grades will then be certified to the Postal Department for appointment.

A permanent appointment should be made by the Postmaster General within a month, although it is possible that it would be longer than this before the appointment goes through. John Baughn, who, it is understood, was a candidate for the position, did not take the examination.

Is It Yours

One of the most interesting historical figures to read about is Charles James Fox, a British statesman whose eccentricities and genius made him beloved by writers of both history and fiction.

Fox was born in London in 1749, and seems to have had the most indulgent father on record. There is a story that the father ad promised he should see the garden wall built, but that it was done while the boy was away, whereupon the father in order to keep his promise, had a part of the wall torn down and built over again so that his son might watch the process. The father quite adored his sons, took them traveling with him, but let them drift into the most immoral society.

Fox grew up with a weakness for gambling and an affectionate disposition. He was always in debt to the money lenders, a fact that he took with great cheerfulness. He called his vestibule where his Jewish creditors sat the 'Jerusalem Chamber,' a pun on the name of the famous Jerusalem Chamber in Westminster Abbey—a pun, by the way, that will probably be quoted for centuries.

He belonged to the party that opposed forcing the American colonies to pay unjust taxation, and that among other things made him unpopular with George III. Nevertheless, he was the foremost man in public life when Pitt died, and the King was compelled to make him Secretary of State. He died when he was 57 years old and is buried in Westminster Abbey.

HIGH SCHOOL FIVE READY FOR FRAY

Not in the least defeated by the one-point defeat handed them by Antioch Academy last week, Coach Harold Confer's Central High School Basketeers, will sojourn to Lebanon Friday night for a game with Lebanon High School.

In Lebanon, the local cagers will meet one of the fastest teams in this section of the state. Last year, at least two of the Lebanon athletes were mentioned as all-Ohio material, and both of these lads are back on the quintet this season. The game will be the only one the locals will indulge in this week, and there will be no home game. The high school third team will play the O. S. & S. O. Home Cadets at the Home Friday night.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"When attending a luncheon or dinner where place cards are used, should one leave them on the table or take them as a souvenir?" asked Jane.

"Place cards should be retained, the hostess having prepared them to be taken away by the guests," replied her mother.

"When a married couple are giving a dinner in honor of another married couple, whom should the host and hostess take into the dining room?" asked the young hostess.

"The host should enter the room first with the lady guest of honor and the hostess goes in last with the husband who is the guest," advised her aunt.

"Should a widow use her husband's initials or name or her own on her visiting cards?" asked a young widow.

"Public sentiment allows a widow to use her husband's initials or name, but legally she has no right to," said her friend.

"If I meet a friend when walking with another friend on the street should I introduce them?" inquired Jack.

"If only a short pause is made an introduction is not necessary, but if a longer stop is made introductions should be made," said her father.

HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

Now he eats everything in sight and romps with playmates.

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constipation and indigestion. Nothing did him any good until we tried Milk Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and has outgrown his childhood trouble. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before."—Wm. Heart, 424 Bundy Ave., New Castle, Ind.

Weak, ailing children usually start eating and getting stronger from the very first bottle of Milk Emulsion. Most children like to take it, because it really tastes good. A trial costs nothing.

Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved. It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Coolidge as Vice-President, will draw $1,000 a month.

A MERITORIOUS XENIA PRODUCT KLEEN MAID Bread

THE substantial growth of our city is dependent on the welfare of its various industries. The prosperity of our factories, our stores, our utilities—all have a part in the city's progress and prosperity—all deserve first consideration in the allotment of our purchases.

When it comes to buying the bread for your home, where can you be so sure of conscientious quality as in buying it from the bakery that is now representative of the industrial growth of Xenia.

The Stiles Baking Company feels a responsibility that only a resident bakery can, in supplying our fellow citizens with the very best bread we can possibly make.

Now, after months of preparation, aided by experts in the baking industry, we are introducing a new bread that we have no hesitation in advertising as the finest bread you ever have tasted.

KLEEN MAID Bread is baked from the finest flour and other ingredients according to the most perfect of formulas—it is the finished result of years of baking experience, plus the latest research and methods. Your taste will tell you as you eat it, that a new standard has been set in bread quality.

KLEEN MAID is baked only in the big loaf, because big loaves are better in flavor and better in quality. They have less crust, and stay fresher much longer.

UNIQUE WAR RELIC SENT POSTMASTER

A unique war relic was the Christmas gift received by Postmaster H. E. Rice, of the U. S. S. Tennessee. E. Rice, of the U. S. Tennessee.

The gift was an ash tray fashioned from a steam gauge taken from a boiler on the former German flagship, Aus Friesland, at the battle of Jutland. The brass mounted gauge, bearing the lettering of the ship to which it belonged, and with the dial decorated with the name of its German makers, fell into the hands of Ensign Rice, who had copper-smiths, remove the works of the gauge, permitting the dial to drop down, so that the contrivance makes an excellent ash tray.

The gift is one that will increase in value with age, and is a relic of the war, out of the ordinary. Ensign Rice, now has charge of all the auxiliary machinery on the Tennessee which is the largest and most up-to-date battle ship of all Uncle Sam's floating armament, and is equipped with the new 24-mile range guns.

MEXICAN REGULARS QUELL REBELLION

FRENCH GIRL NAMED BY WIFE IN SUIT FOR HER DIVORCE

Shippey Affair Revived After Being Apparently Patched Up.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 13.—Mrs. Mary Blake Shippey, wife of Lee Shippey, writer and former Y. M. C. A. worker, has filed suit for divorce in Circuit court. The name of Madeleine Bain, Paris, the girl with whom Shippey now is living in Monterey, Mexico is mentioned in the complaint against Shippey. Mrs. Shippey asks for the custody of her minor son.

The petition charges that Shippey is living with Miss Bain, "the paternity of whose son he boastfully acknowledges."

In the bill Mrs. Shippey states that she was married to Lee Shippey in Kansas City, August 19, 1908. They separated Jan. 31, 1920, through no fault of her own, according to the petition.

The first break between Shippey and Mrs. Shippey came when the Y. M. C. A. workers return to New York, from France, after having served in Paris. Mrs. Shippey met him in New York. There, according to the wife, she was informed that her husband desired her to obtain a divorce, so he could marry Miss Bain.

Leola Lucey or Phonograph—Which?

Leola Lucey sings Broadway's hits with a silvery sweetness and joyousness which few other musical comedy stars can match.

Miss Lucey made a RE-CREATION for the New Edison of a recent song-success. When it was completed Mr. Edison subjected it to his famous tone-test, officially to prove that the RE-CREATED voice had every quality of Miss Lucey's living voice.

This picture shows how the test was made. Miss Lucey came to the Edison Recording Studios on Fifth Avenue, New York. To get a direct comparison between her RE-CREATED voice and her living voice, Miss Lucey stood beside the instrument and began to sing the song. Suddenly she ceased and the New Edison continued alone. That was the test.

The Committee found that Miss Lucey's living voice and her RE-CREATED voice were without a shade of difference. The RE-CREATION became "official" for

JANUARY BANQUET OF C. OF C. TOUTED AS BIG AFFAIR

The January banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to be held next Tuesday and which is being featured in the publicity, as a January Jubilee is prophesied as one of the biggest of the monthly affairs that has yet been arranged for the benefit of the members.

Captain Harry Hurd, is highly rated as an entertaining and educational speaker. His vast experience while on detached service with the British army on relief in the near East, has ably fitted him as an orator on the subject he will use "Social and Business Conditions in the Near East."

Captain Hurd has been working with Herbert Hoover in his relief work among the countries of Palestine, Turkey, Syria and others of the famine stricken and war ridden territories, that have been crying to America for relief. His tale is picturesque, as well as educational.

Besides Captain Hurd's address, George V. Sheridan, publisher of the Springfield Sun, will speak on the "Management of a City Newspaper." The Chamber of Commerce orchestra will furnish the music and the banquet will be prepared by Jacob Kany. Members expecting to attend are requested to phone in their reservations.

DEPARTMENT HEADS MUST SOLVE PROBLEM

Washington, Jan. 13.—With the Department of State and Labor still undecided over the disposition of Lord Mayor Daniel J. O'Callaghan of Cork, who arrived at Newport News last week as a stowaway without a passport, it was indicated yesterday that President Wilson would leave to his cabinet officers the solving of one of the inter-departmental differences which have arisen over the case.

Should Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson continue to show no disposition to take cognizance of the request of Acting Secretary of State Norman H. Davis that O'Callaghan be deported, it was stated today by officials of the State Department, the Department of Justice may be asked to take a hand in seeing that the order of the Secretary of State is executed.

The Woman He Married

BY JANE PHELPS

NAN MEETS MR. BURNS CHAPTER 63

"Mr. Williams, I believe you know Mr. Burns. Mrs. Williams, may I present Mr. Burns to you?" Mildred Stowell, lovely in sheer black with a rope of pearls, and as Dick and I entered the room where the guests were waiting dinner.

"I am delighted to meet Mrs. Williams," Mr. Burns, a very good looking man about 45 years old, said as he bowed over my hand. His eyes had shown plainly that he was surprised, and that he admired me.

He then poked me for a moment. But dinner was announced, and he again turned to me.

"I believe I am to take you in, Mrs. Williams," he said, as he offered his arm.

I made no reply, but I think I blushed at the glance he bent upon me. Dick was at the other end of the table with Miss Lake. I wished he had been placed where I could see him, and he me. I was so glad he was pleased with my appearance my dress. His admiration meant more to me than that of anyone else in the world.

I may have been a bad wife even at this time, but no thought of any other man had ever entered my head I cared nothing for their admiration except as it flattered my pride in myself—my judgment in dressing.

"Williams is a luck man," Mr. Burns said after a while.

"He is a very fine man," I bragged.

"Indeed he is," he answered, but without animation. Then, "You haven't been married long?"

"Oh, yes, 40 or 50 years, I laughed.

"Quite old married people, and still in love," he smiled as he said it, yet I did not quite like his tone.

"Yes, indeed!" I replied with emphasis. "No woman could help loving Dick if he were her husband."

"Fortunate Dick!" he said, then commenced to talk very entertainingly of other things. He had traveled much, and was most interesting I enjoyed my dinner immensely, and yet was rather glad when it was over and we adjourned to the music room where the tables were placed for bridge.

In the interim between dinner and our game I went over beside Dick.

"Did you have a nice time at dinner?" I asked. "I tried to catch your eyes, but couldn't."

"How did you like Burns? Be nice. How did you like Burns? Be nice to him dear. He's a wizard at making money, and has promised to give me some very valuable information."

"He's very nice when he talks of something besides me," I returned. "He thinks you a lucky fellow because you have me," I added archly, not averse to making Dick also compliment me.

"Of course I'm lucky! You are very lovely tonight, Nan. I am terribly proud of you. That blue and silver suits you perfectly."

"Come, you two!" Mrs. Stowell called. "Stop making love and take your places at the tables."

I found my card and it put me opposite Mr. Burns. I was not an expert player, and told him so.

"Never mind! We will have luck, perhaps," he said, as he dealt the cards.

We were lucky. Clara and Mr. Stowell played against us, and we beat them terribly. It was 1 o'clock when we stopped. Mr. Burns asked if he might call and Dick urged him to make it soon.

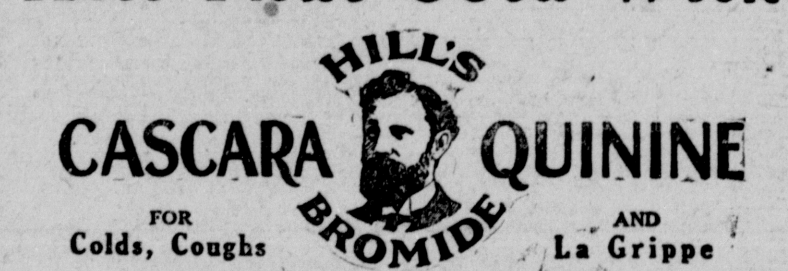

"We'll have someone in to make a fourth and have a little game," he said.

"Thank you, I shall avail myself very soon of your permission," He spoke to Dick, but looked at me. I murmured something, and then we said good night to Mr. and Mrs. Stowell, and left. Clara and Jim rode home with us, of course.

"You made an awful hit with that Mr. Burns, Nan," Clara said. "I thought Dick's nonsense would be proved true, and he would carry you off in some sort of motor car, instead of a pumpkin chariot. He looked as if he would like it."

NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, AILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle after another until I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. BRITTEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

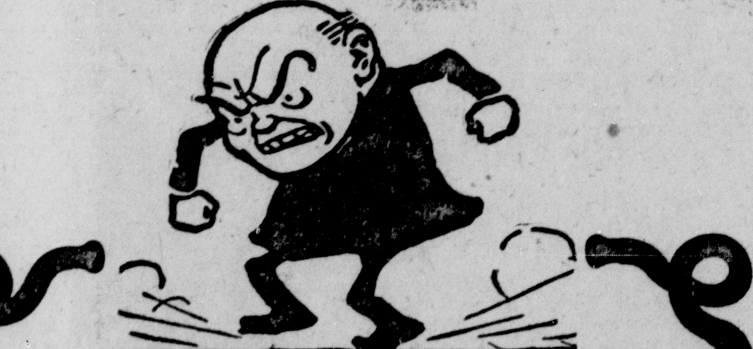

Another Michigan Woman says: "I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE GRANGER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments act directly upon the nerves, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous dependency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
